

Monday 11th May

Good morning everyone did you enjoy the long weekend? How did you celebrate VE day?

In case you didn't get chance to celebrate it I thought today we could! It's a really special day to celebrate that it has been 75 years since World War Two ended, here is a great video to see the effects of war in a child friendly way.

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/cbeebies/watch/poppies>

Watch it a couple of times and see if you can talk about it. How does the music change? What happens to the colours? How do you think the animals felt?

To celebrate VE day here is a choice of different fun activities to pick and choose from as you wish!

- Why not make some cupcakes and decorate them in red, white and blue like the Union Jack?
- Make some Union Jack bunting and decorate your bedroom or house!
- Have a picnic outside with your family and celebrate together.
- Make a medal for someone who you think has been brave, it could be someone in your family, a friend or someone else you know.

I hope you have a lovely day and have fun celebrating!

Miss Edlin

