Can you remember both the sounds from this week? We looked at th on Monday and Tuesday and started to look at z on Wednesday. Re watch the videos to remind yourself if you have forgotten. Did you manage to think of some z words? It's a bit tricky isn't it! Lets have a go at writing z today. Zig, zag, zig!

Adults could you write zip and zag for children to have a go at sounding out. Children can you write zap and zig for adults to sound out.

How did you get on in the shop on Wednesday? Today we are going to continue thinking about money but I have some games for you to play online.

https://www.topmarks.co.uk/money/coins-game try and sort the money into the piggy bank.

And another shop https://www.topmarks.co.uk/money/toy-shop-money see what you can buy.

Shall we dance to some 'Sticky kids', we've been dancing and laughing to 'stand up, sit down', 'funky monkey' and 'heads, shoulders, knees and toes' this week in school.

Dinosaur fact: The name "Velociraptor" means speedy thief.

A Friday treat now, can you have a go at making some bread boulders?

Otherwise known as bread rolls. This is the recipe we are going to use in school, https://www.bbcgoodfood.com/recipes/soft-burger-buns

Have a wonderful day and a lovely weekend
