English - Viewpoints

Imagine you are writing to a pen pal in Spain. Write an email or a letter telling them about what is going on in England at the moment. Include questions which you may want them to answer about how this compares to Spain. Think about personal viewpoints and the use of informal language.

Maths - Problem Solving

When Spain played Belgium in the preliminary round of the men's hockey competition in the 2008 Olympics, the final score was 4 – 2.

What could the half time score have been?
Can you find all the possible half time scores?
How will you make sure you don't miss any out?

In the final of the men's hockey in the 2000 Olympics, the Netherlands played Korea. The final score was a draw; 3 – 3 and they had to take penalties.

Can you find all the possible half time scores for this match?

RE - A change in viewpoints.

Think back to history lessons and school assemblies focussed on Martin Luther King and Rosa Parks. Use IT to do a little research on these amazing people. You could do a quick concept map of ideas.

L.O. I can plan an analysis of how famous people shaped society's opinion on race, culture and religion.

The lives of Martin Luther King and Rosa Parks

How did Martin Luther King and Rosa Park's actions and views shape society today? Think about people's views on race, culture and religion. How do you think they have shaped and improved people's attitudes towards those who are different to ourselves?

Have a lovely day, Mrs Williams
