

Our European Neighbours

Learning Objective:

To be able to compare two European capital cities.

How many European capital cities can you remember?

Can you remember which country each one is in?

BACK

NEXT

Today we are going to be comparing two different capital cities. This means exploring what each one is like and then seeing what is the same and what is different about them.

What do you think would be the same about London and Paris?

What do you think would be different about London and Paris?

BACK

NEXT

There are lots of questions we can ask to compare two cities...

What is the size of each city?

What currency does each city use?

What language is spoken in each city?

What landmarks are there in each city?

What can sightseers do in each city?

What traditional foods are eaten in each city?

What rivers run through each city?

What is the population of each city?

BACK

NEXT

How many of these questions can you answer for London?

How big is London?

What currency does London use?

What language is spoken in London?

What landmarks are there in London?

What can sightseers do in London?

What traditional foods are eaten in London?

What rivers run through London?

What is the population of London?

BACK

NEXT

How many of these questions can you answer for Paris?

How big is Paris?

What currency does Paris use?

What language is spoken in Paris?

What landmarks are there in Paris?

What can sightseers do in Paris?

What traditional foods are eaten in Paris?

What rivers run through Paris?

What is the population of Paris?

BACK

NEXT

Where can we find the answers to the questions we didn't know?

BACK