Colossians 3:12

This week’s value: Compassion

Dear Parents and Carers,

This week in school our value has been Compassion. We have looked at ways that we can show compassion and how we might see that in nature too. The children as always shared some lovely ideas both about what they already do and how they might do even more.

Also this week the children have shared their ideas for naming the wind turbine. The children’s ideas are: Rainbow, Electro, Windy Bishop, Windygo, Lightning, Tamar the Turbine, Gayle (Gail). We are voting in achievement assembly on Friday. I am really looking forward to hearing the children’s decision.

I am sure that you will be as excited as we are to hear that work has started in the school library. The electricians have been busy changing the lighting and putting in new cabling. Next on the plan will be the painting, then the fitting of the tree house, benches, bookcases and finally the astro turf carpet. Once complete we will be inviting parents and carers into school for the grand opening.

On that note can, I would like to take the opportunity to remind you that tickets are still on sale for the beautiful rocking horse.

I hope that you have a lovely weekend,
Mrs Fletcher

Achievement Awards

Seren in Reception Class for writing an amazing book review about Zog, trying really hard to sound out each word and form your letters correctly. Well done Seren!

Joshua in Year 1 has been working so hard on his handwriting and it is really showing keep it up Joshua.

Mrs. Oakes has been really proud of Oscar in Year 2 this week. His attitude has been fantastic especially when doing his writing.

Cooper in Year 3 has settled in well to his new class and has been trying his very best in all subjects. An excellent start, well done Cooper.

Naya in Year 4 is making huge strides in her learning and always tries her best in the classroom, with some fabulous Viking artwork this week.

This week Eloise has been a superstar in our maths lessons. She has been trying her hardest and really doing well as a result. Well done on those decimals Eloise!

Jasmine in Year 6 approaches all of her learning with a positive attitude, she has an amazing work ethic and she will ask for support in areas she is not confident in. I am very proud of your progress Jasmine and it is all down to your dedication to your studies. 😊

Value Awards

Maia in Reception Class for showing true care, kindness and compassion to a friend who was feeling sad.

Eli in Year 1 shows kindness in action all the time - if someone is crying Eli will always comfort them.

Freya in Year has shown true compassion when helping her friends this week. She has been amazing and always seems to know the right thing to say.

Lois in Year 3 is kind and caring with her classmates and is an excellent role model for the class. Well done Lois.

Theo in Year 4 shows compassion each and every day towards his peers and is always very helpful in the classroom.

Niamh in Year 5 is a very caring young lady who always shows compassion. She is always willing to help anyone out, without being asked. Well done Niamh.

Jacob in Year 6 this week offered support to one of his friends during break time and ensured they were included. He even thought about choosing a game which his friend would enjoy. He gave up his time and demonstrated compassion; he is truly a compassionate friend. 😊

SPORTS REPORT

SE Cornwall Netball League

Well done to our amazing Netball A team who beat a very valiant Brunel team 37-2 on Wednesday. All the team played brilliantly with the team voting Harvey Player of the Match. Mr Brown chose Miley as his Player of the Match. Well done to all those in the team.

This week in school we have...

This week in Year 4 we looked at Norse gods in Art. We first tried drawing different Nordic symbols like Jormungandr or Odin's Spear Gungnir. From here we talked about how we could create our own god, choosing their name and what they are the god of. We then used this information to create our own symbol.

This week Year 1 have been on a voyage in a big ship and have sketched some beautiful plants and trees in science. They have been finishing work around the numbers to 50 and learning about Hanukah in RE.

This week Year 2 have been working hard on their Owl stories. In maths they have been exploring fractions and measuring. They did some super sorting in science and were able to talk about things that are dead, alive and never alive. They have had fun in the woods and done some super learning in geography all about Kenya.

This week Year 3 have been learning some Cornish songs and words from the Cornish language as part of our Year 3 topic about our beautiful region. They have also been discovering facts about the Islamic regions as part of RE and learning vocabulary for the weather and seasons in Spanish.

This week in Reception Class we have been writing book reviews of our book 'Zog', creating golden stars and retelling the story. We have also been learning to count down from 10 and take away small numbers, working on our letter foundation and sounding out words we want to write.

This week Year 5 have been completing their science unit 'Living things in habitats'. The plants we had taken cuttings from were ready to be planted... let's see if they grow well. The children have also been enjoying learning and practising skills in tennis and have been lucky to play outside in the lovely sunshine.

Year 6 are now busy preparing for their SATs. We are working through any topics which they feel they need more practice, so all our lessons for the next couple of weeks will be areas which they feel they would like to revisit. They are working very hard and I am very proud of their resilience and work ethic as they approach SATs. In RE, they have been linking the Gospels to how Jesus would want us to live and how society and social media can impact on this. In PE, they are learning the skills for rounders and cricket and I hear from Mr Brown they that they are excelling in these.
