

Y4 Homework - Friday 9th July

Topic

This week, your task is to produce a poster of the new Roman Baths you have opened up. You may like to use some persuasive language to entice people to visit. People will also need a clear understanding of what is in your Roman Baths, so a floor plan and pictures may be helpful. Have fun.

Reading

Please read daily and log on your reading journal please. Please continue to bring these to school every day. When you have finished your reading book this week, please return it to school and then you may read something of your own for the remaining of our days together. Of course, if you would like to borrow a school book over the summer term, please feel free to do so. 😊
