

Gooooooooooooood Morning Year
6!

Right... are you still in your PJs? It's time for PJ-PE!!! If it's nearly 09:00, get YouTube loaded up with Joe Wicks! Woo hoo!! If you're too late, do 30 star jumps followed by 2 minutes of jogging and sprinting on the spot!

...and breathe... :-)

How is everyone today? Hope you're all well and still smiling! :-)

I had a lovely couple of emails yesterday from two of your class mates - it was wonderful to see some of the things they've been doing! The food looked amazing! It really made my day! :-)

Hope the letters are going well! Did any of you have a look for, or get a chance to watch Goodnight Mister Tom? For those of you who are members of Amazon Prime, you can find it there, but it does cost a small amount. Don't forget, you must ask permission! I don't think the bill payer would be particularly pleased knowing you'd bought a film on my recommendations!! Ask, ask ask! :-)

Ok - R.E. Yesterday I asked you to think about the last few hours of Jesus' earthly life. I wonder what you came up with? Did any of you write a song/poem? I know there are some of you who would have been particularly keen to do this! Have any of you created an art masterpiece which represents those final hours? I'd love to see! I'd also love to hear a recording of a song... if that's possible?!

- Carry on with your R.E. work and perhaps try doing one of the other suggestions. So if you chose art, try writing a poem or building something. You could also use Stop Motion to create an animated version. Any creative response to this would be good.

- Try answering these questions: (If you cannot find the answers in Matthew's Gospel - the link I gave you to read - try reading the same account in one of the other Gospels from Mark, Luke or John).

1. Who did Jesus ask to look after his mother?
2. What was the name of the Roman governor in charge of Jerusalem?
3. What was offered to Jesus whilst hanging on the cross?
4. Who helped him carry his cross?
5. What was another name for Golgotha?
6. What did the Roman soldiers do beneath the cross?
7. What were Jesus' last words?
8. What happened when the sky turned black?
9. What was placed on the cross above Jesus' head?
10. Jesus said, "Eli, Eli, lema sabachthani." What does this translate as?

Maths

I've had a look at IXL maths, and see a few of you have had a go at the 'W' section. I'd really love it if you could all have a go. :-)

I can also see that there are a few Reception maths questions that have been answered yesterday... I think, you can leave those ones! ;-) ha ha!

I'll send you some 'time' questions tomorrow, so... Don't delay, get practising today!

I have some research homework for you for over the Easter holidays... *wait... this is ALL 'homework!' Ha ha ha! Oh well... you know what I mean!

Challenge for today: Play a game with some family members (or as many people you can get to play with you in your house! My favourite family game is Uno, as some of you know!)

Before you go:

A boy threw a lump of cheddar at me. I thought, "That's not very mature!"

Q. Why can't your nose be twelve inches long?

A. Because then it would be a foot!

Q. What did the llama say when he got kicked out of the zoo?

A. "Alpaca my bags!"

:-D Ha ha ha ha ha ha ha!! Sorry... I can't help it! I know... they're terrible! ;-)

Now click this link (or copy and paste it into your browser - it's a YouTube link so ask permission!) and dance around the room to Gracie Fields - another WWII star! 'Wish me luck as you wave me goodbye!' <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Rs3DZd8CaAk>

Learn it and then sing the karaoke version:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=3QG24xNIFtc>

(at 1 minute and 13 seconds to 1 minute 48 seconds, it's compulsory to march! :-) have fun!)

*Look out for my message tomorrow!
God bless,*

Mr Hill :-)
