

How Might Sarah Answer?

Write about how you think Sarah might answer these questions.

1. Why did you and Abraham pack up your things and leave your lovely life to go to Canaan?

Words to help you: God, trusted, promise, bless.

2. How did you feel when Abraham told you that you would be leaving to go to Canaan?

Words to help you: shocked, worried, sacrifice, trust, God.

3. Why did you change your name?

Words to help you: Sarai, God, agreement, covenant, Abraham, Abram.

4. Why did you laugh when you heard the promise that you would have a child within a year?

Words to help you: old, impossible, God.

5. Tell me about the covenant that Abraham made with God.

Words to help you: agreement, promise, land, Canaan, children, names.

6. What was your son called and how did you feel when he was born?

Words to help you: blessed, God.

7. Can you think of another question you would like to ask Sarah?

Write it here: _____

How Might Sarah Answer?

Write about how you think Sarah might answer these questions.

Useful words: God, trusted, promise, bless, shocked, worried, sacrifice, trust, God Sarai, agreement, covenant, Abraham, Abram old, impossible, land, Canaan, children, names.

1. Why did you and Abraham pack up your things and leave your lovely life to go to Canaan?

2. How did you feel when Abraham told you that you would be leaving to go to Canaan?

3. Why did you change your name?

4. Why did you laugh when you heard the promise that you would have a child within a year?

5. Tell me about the covenant that Abraham made with God.

6. What was your son called and how did you feel when he was born?

7. Can you think of another question you would like to ask Sarah?

Write it here: _____

How Might Sarah Answer?

Write about how you think Sarah might answer these questions.

1. Why did you and Abraham pack up your things and leave your lovely life to go to Canaan?

2. How did you feel when Abraham told you that you would be leaving to go to Canaan?

3. Why did you change your name?

4. Why did you laugh when you heard the promise that you would have a child within a year?

5. Tell me about the covenant that Abraham made with God.

6. What was your son called and how did you feel when he was born?

7. Can you think of another question you would like to ask Sarah?

Write it here: _____

How would Sarah answer this question? Write how she might answer here.

How Might Sarah Answer? Answers

1. Why did you and Abraham pack up your things and leave your lovely life to go to Canaan?

We did indeed have a lovely life before we left but God spoke to Abraham and told him to leave for Canaan so we did. Abraham trusted God and wanted to do what he said. God made a promise that he would bless our family.

2. How did you feel when Abraham told you that you would be leaving to go to Canaan?

I was shocked and worried about what was ahead for us. It was a sacrifice for us to make as we had a great life before but we have always had trust in God.

3. Why did you change your name?

Abraham made an agreement called a covenant with God. Part of this was that we would change our names. I changed my name from Sarai to Sarah. My husband changed his name from Abram to Abraham.

4. Why did you laugh when you heard the promise that you would have a child within a year?

I laughed because it seemed impossible. I was very old then. I should have trusted in God.

5. Tell me about the covenant that Abraham made with God.

Abraham made an agreement with God. God made a promise that he would have a child and have many descendants. He also said that he would give our family a land of our own called Canaan. We agreed that we would go to Canaan and change our names.

6. What was your son called and how did you feel when he was born?

We felt so happy when our son was born. We felt that God had blessed us. We called our son Isaac.

7. Can you think of another question you would like to ask Sarah?

Example answer: Would you go back to your homeland now if you could?

8. How would Sarah answer this question? (★★★ only)

Example answer: No. I trust in God and will follow his instructions. Anyway, we have Isaac now and we are happy.