

Hear Ye, O Parents of Children in the Year of 6!

On the tenth day in the month of January in the year of our Lord 2019, his most gen'rous and excellent majesty the King requests the company of his s'rvants from the year of six at a banquet of such delights, wh're the royal sackbuts and rackets h'rald the arrival of a boars heade, to bray out the feast of Epiphany.

The celebration shalt includeth dancing and music from the finest musicians in all the lande - Chapel Royal - playing such music by William Byrd and Thomas Tallis, as well as His Majesty's owne mast'rpieces.

A feast shalt be hadst by all, but f'r thy childe to enjoyeth thus, with such delights, his most excellent majesty and courti'rs requesteth that thy childe bringeth a platter to shareth of fine foods hither! Only food of the finest kinde of the day might bee giv'n to bee consum'd - nay f'reign tush tush!

Thy dress and costume shalt be of the day, wearing only the finest in mat'rials fiteth f'r its purpose in the palace of Bishop C'rnysh. Th're art a few weeks yet to prepareth, and thy purses may jingle less because of it, but remindeth thyself of the occasion f'r his majesty. P'rhaps costumes may be madeth from mat'rials discov'r'd in shoppes selling less than new cloth? Creative must - creative bee!

Returneth Prithiee thee a note of thy acceptance and so address to His Majesty's Master of Feasts. Includeth with what thy shalt supplyeth as means of sustenance f'r the feast, bee it sav'ry 'r sweete. This shalt be as homew'rk to thee.

If 't be true thou canst not 'r wilt not accompany his majesty, a foul and beastly endeth thou shalt taketh, lamenting in t'rturous s'rrow. The Tower of London has many moste rooms there in!

Sending thee th' v'ry most wondrous wishes and blessings,

Master of Banquets and Celebrations at Bishop C'rnysh Palace f'r His Majesty's pleasure,

R. Hille